

Can you please stock Dandy Blend?

You're receiving this letter because your customers would like to see Dandy Blend on your shelves.

Dandy Blend is a coffee alternative that tastes, smells and looks just like coffee with zero caffeine. It's made of only four ingredients including roasted barley extracts, roasted rye extracts, roasted chicory root extracts, and roasted dandelion root extracts. Dandy Blend has a devoted and strong following of 'Dandy Fans' who prefer in-store purchases to online orders.

What do 'Dandy Fans' love about Dandy Blend?

- Only 5 calories per serving
- It has a rich, full-bodied taste just like coffee, but without the caffeine
- The product is an instant powder so no steeping or brewing
- It can be made with any liquid at any temperature

Recognized as one of the first coffee alternatives before it became a trend, Dandy Blend was developed in 1994 by botanist Dr. Peter Gail, dubbed the 'King of Dandelions'. Dandy Blend's regular line is available in 7.05 oz, 14.1 oz, and 2-pound bags. It's also available in a box of 25 singles, perfect for when you're on-the-go. Dandy Blend's organic line is available in 3.5 oz and 11 oz bags.
